No. G. 2-751—52-53.

The Parvathi Chandrasekhara Aiyar Scholarship.

Founder.—Rajadharmapravina Diwan Bahadur K. S. Chandrasekhara Aiyar, Bangalore.

Object.—To mark the elapsing of twenty-five years since the death of his wife Srimathi Parvati Ammal and with a view to commemorate her long association with the "Mahila Seva Samaja", Bangalore of which she was the President.

Date 1952

Original Amount.—Rs. 10,000.

Conditions of grant.

The Scholarship shall be called the "Parvathi Chandrasekhara Aiyar Scholarship".

2 The Scholarship will be awarded every year to the most eligible past student of the Mahila Seva Samaja of Bangalore intending to pursue further study for a Degree Course in the University of Mysore.

3 Eligibility is by merit and character, not on account of poverty alone. The award shall be made on the recommendation of a Committee appointed by the University Council in this behalf. The President for the time being of the Mahila Seva Samaja, Bangalore, shall be a member of the Committee.

4 The Scholarship will be of the annual value of Rs. 200 per academic year, and will be tenable for two years, subject to the usual conditions as to the candidate's conduct and progress being satisfactory.

5 Should a scholarship lapse on account of death or other reason, the amount not awarded will either be added to the corpus of the Endowment, or utilised (at the discretion of the University) to help another past student during the third year, or later course of study.

6 The interest realised in excess shall be added on to the corpus till the fund is sufficient to yield a further sum of Rs. 200 to enable the University to make another award on similar terms.

7 In matters not covered by the scheme, the University will act according to its best discretion.
